O. C. E. ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

For the OCE Alumni Association, the year 1944 was one of significant activity. The officers, under whose leadership the expanding program was established, included Susie Bonner Emmons, '22, president; Dorothy Goodwin, '43 (degree), vice-president; and Shirley Jarmon, '30, budget director. The appointment of Cecilia Brennan, '28, executive secretary, completed the roll.

Of paramount importance among the activities of the Association was the establishment of an Alumni Council to carry on a continued program for the benefit of the alumni, the college, and the teaching profession.

Two hundred alumni in the armed services, whose addresses were known, received Christmas cards from the campus during the fall term.

An assembly for the OCE student body, at which the alumni officers were present, was held on February 15. Thomas H. Gentle was the guest speaker. At the educational conference in April the Association sponsored a tea for all visitors. During Commencement week the senior class was honored.

The OCE Alumni Association is deeply appreciative of the loyalty and cooperation of the faculty alumni chapter on the campus. This Campus Alumni Service Club, organized in 1944, and under the chairmanship of Mrs. Pearl Heath, was directly responsible for the success of all the campus activities of the Association.

The appearance of the OCEAN as the official Alumni publication during the Fall term was greeted enthusiastically by members throughout the state. The continuance of this Oregon College of Education Alumni News is part of the long-time planning program of the officers and council members.

Like other group organizations all over the world, the Student Council for the 1943-1944 year was faced with many problems resulting from war. Off-campus entertainment was often difficult to obtain, but talent drawn from O.C.E. students provided material for assemblies, evening programs, and dances. The Student Council felt fortunate in being able to present to its student body members such programs as Dr. Ernest Riggs, President of Anatolia College in Greece, Mr. Morton Tomkins, representative of the U.S. Grange, who visited England in 1941, Major L. T. Jenks, Chaplain of 70th Division of Camp Adair, several talented singers, pianist, and violinists from Camp Adair, the Eugene Gleemen, and the world renowned Roth String Quartet whose only stop in Oregon was at the Oregon College of Education.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The members of the Student Council include the Executive Committee, faculty adviser, and the student commissioners.

The council members are: Velda Steffen, Lily Waggoner, Doris Johnson, Helen Wiest, Doyle McAninch, Eleanor Newman, Kathleen McGinnis, Betty McGuire, Helen Petersen, Kathryn Nash, and Mr. Delmar R. Dewey, faculty advisor.

These pictures paint none other than the Seniors, fall, winter, and spring, searching vainly for the magic formula of modern classroom procedures.

The Juniors lost no time in letting the Freshmen know which class traditionally wore the green ribbons. The neophytes responded in good spirit, and the initiation proved more profitable than harmful for both classes.

Choosing Mr. Oscar Christensen as their class advisor, the Juniors planned a New Year's dance on January 1, which proved a huge success.

The girls were active in WAA and for the second consecutive year, won the volleyball championship.

Forty-six new Freshmen began their college career by the election of Mildred Fox as class president and by a traditional initiation from the Juniors.

Their first display of talent was shown at an early assembly when they sang an eighteen-verse song, "To the Juniors," composed by Elizabeth Beebe.

The next event, in return for the initiation, was a Student Body party held in the Rec Hall.

They also sponsored a St. Patrick's day dance. Freshmen took an active part by participating in school affairs.

An average of ninety girls called Todd Hall "home" for the past year. The three terms of work, play, and fun were led by Prexy, Doris Johnson, and supervised by the genial house-mother, Mrs. Black.

Firesides were bi-weekly events, with the floors alternating as sponsors. Some undiscovered talent was unearthed by the scouting chairmen, and very good it was.

The dining room was the scene of Collecto's Sweetheart Ball. Men were furnished by good friends at Camp Adair.

The girls of Jolly Todd captured second prize in Campfire's Skit Night with their interpretation of war-time football.

Two formal dinners were given the highlights of fall term—one at Thanksgiving and the other at Christmas.

Throughout a memorable year of comradeship, the Burch House girls have successfully participated in many varied activities. One outstanding event was the winning of first place on Skit Night with the presentation of the minstrel show, the "Six Minstrels." With the team representing Nelson Hall and Burch House, the members again won first place in the House Volleyball tournament. The girls have sincerely appreciated the thoughtfulness and the interest the housemother, Mrs. Leona Burch, has shown.

ORGANIZATIONS

BAND

Under the able leadership of Mr. Oscar Christensen, the band performed many times throughout the year. The band was very small because of the decreased enrollment this year. Students from the Monmouth training school and the Monmouth high school also performed with the group. They appeared at the War Bond rally, at Crimson "O" plays, at an assembly, and also during Music Week.

CHOIR

The Women's choir has had to carry the full load this year, that has previously been divided between the Women's choir and the A cappella choir. During the absence of the OCE boys, the A cappella choir has not been active.

The women's choir, ranging from thirty to forty voices each term, presented the Christmas vespers, sang each term in assembly, performed at both the Monmouth and Independence Training schools during Music Week, and presented several programs for the service men at Camp Adair. The choir was also a main feature of the Educational Conference in April, and of the graduation exercises at the close of the school year. Mrs. Florence W. Hutchinson is the able leader and director of this group.

Collecto Coeds, a service club, is made up of fifteen girls elected for qualities which make them leaders on the campus. The purpose of the club is service to the school, carried out through such activities as ushering at special programs, taking tickets at dances, and also sponsoring several activities.

A large service flag to be hung in the student lounge was presented to the school by these girls.

This year Collecto's held their annual Sweetheart Ball at the dormitory, choosing "Mac", school janitor, as their 1944 sweetheart. At the end of the year, Collecto's sponsored the annual May Day celebration.

Staff and Key is a service club on the campus to which girls who possess outstanding qualities of leadership, cooperation, friendliness, character, and loyalty are elected. The members must maintain a grade point average of 2.5.

Some of the outstanding events in 1943-1944, sponsored by Staff and Key, included the following: help in the sale of student body tickets, a fortune-telling event at a tea, a Halloween dance, auction of yarn dolls at a tea, and an all school carnival, the "Spring Round-up".

Crimson O, the dramatic organization of O.C.E., has probably felt the loss of men students more than any other club on the campus. But, nevertheless, the group has upheld its traditions and provided entertainment which was received with enthusiasm by students, townspeople, and servicemen. Membership in the club is gained by formal try-outs, and the members present two one-act plays each term. This year the club has been successful in presenting their interpretation of several war-time plays.

The annual Homecoming banquet was omitted this year, but a special dinner was given each term at which time new members were introduced and initiated. The club has also assisted with Thursday evening student teas.

Under the friendly guidance of Miss Lautenbach, faculty advisor, Campfire activities this year went smoothly ahead. The members sponsored the annual Skit Night and war savings stamp contest, sold Christmas cards, and made gifts for soldiers in the hospitals.

Campfire's purpose on the O.C.E. campus is to instill the fundamentals of Campfire leadership in the future teachers of the state.

TOXOPHOLITES

The Toxophilites, whose membership is chosen from students showing a keen interest in archery, have been somewhat inactive this year.

The advisor, Mr. A. C. Stanbrough, has helped each member of the club to gain more knowledge of the skill requisite in shooting the bow and arrow. With him as leader, the group has placed high in many years in various state and national archery meets.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is one of the oldest Evangelical Christian Student organizations. It had its beginning at Cambridge University in England in 1877.

This year IVCF has been especially fortunate in being able to bring to the campus such outstanding men as Stacey Woods, North America IVCF General Secretary; Raymond Joyce, IVCF North America Missionary Secretary; John Trachsel, repatriated missionary from Japanese-occupied China; and others.

Phi Beta Sigma is a national honorary society for teachers. Persons to be eligible for membership in Phi Beta Sigma must have a grade point average of 2.5 or better, have an interest in the teaching profession and contribute to campus activities. The outstanding activity for this school year was the assembly with post-war activities as the theme. The club has also sponsored Thursday night teas and helped with invitations for the Educational conference.

In the minds of every member will always be tucked away pleasant memories of informal get-togethers at Miss Arbuthnot's solemn, candle-lighted initiations, fascinating speakers, and delightful teas.

Miss Arbuthnot, Mrs. Black, and Miss Schwartz served as advisors.

LAMRON

The four-page weekly student paper, written and edited by the students themselves, contains news of organizations, girls' sports, social activities, associated students, and faculty, and such features as Mazie's Diary and Co-Eds' Co-op.

As a war measure the greater portion of the sport page is devoted to letters and news of OCE men and women in the service. Effort is made to send the Lamron to these members of the armed forces.

The journalism class has worked with the Lamron and contributed a great deal to its success.

The position of assistant editor has been considered an apprenticeship for prospective leaders of the Lamron for next year. Four students filled this position during the year.

The Women's Athletic Association has offered a variety of sports to the students on our campus. Their aim was to further sportsmanship, leadership, and skill as well as provide relaxation and playing for the fun of it.

W.A.A. added to the past year's social calendar by sponsoring numerous play-nights, folk-dances, and Thursday night teas. The members entered a skit in the Skit Night contest.

The sport managers were: Emily Colfelt, volleyball; Darlene Hart, basketball; Elsie Matthes, softball; Lois Day, tumbling; Gloria Gebers, badminton; Kathleen McGinnis, tennis; Eleanor Johnson, folk-dancing; Gilda Chapman, hiking and bicycling.

FRESHMAN CLASS

JUNIOR CLASS

VOLLEY BALL

The Junior volleyball team were class champions for the fall '43 season. The score of the winning game was 33 to 20. This is the outstanding girls' sport in the Fall before basketball begins.

BASKET BALL

For the first time in many years the basketball season was brought to a close with a three-way tie among the players from the Freshmen, the Juniors and the Seniors.

After the completion of a successful house team tournament a round robin tournament showed the close competition of the three classes with the following scores: Freshmen 18, Seniors 22; Juniors 14, Freshmen 25; Juniors 16, Seniors 10.

Members of each team were as follows:

BADMINTON AND TENNIS

Barbara Jean Smith, ace of the badminton courts of O.C.E., holds this title as the winner of the single elimination badminton tournament of 1943.

Eligibility was based on attendance at three-fourths of the scheduled practices. This sport along with basketball of winter term showed a large turn-out of players.

One of the main spring sports on the O.C.E. campus is tennis and despite the war this has been a very exciting season. Instead of an Interscholastic League, as of previous years, this spring a single elimination tournament was played by those sufficiently interested. The final match was played on Play Day, before an expectant audience who saw Gloria Gebers become Queen of the Tennis Courts for the 1943 season.
